1 Admission requirements

Candidate-students holding a bachelor's diploma in Visual Arts, awarded by the Flemish Community, with a corresponding main subject and competency profile, will be granted direct admission to the master studies in Visual Arts.

Candidate-students holding a bachelor's diploma in Visual Arts, awarded by the Flemish Community, with a different main subject and candidate students with a different bachelor's diploma, can be admitted to a preparatory or bridging programme after going through the admissions procedure.

Candidate-students with a bachelor's diploma with a corresponding main subject and competence profile, obtained abroad (or in the French Community) can be admitted to the master studies in Visual Arts after completing the admissions procedure.

Candidate-students with a bachelor's diploma with a different main subject and students with a different bachelor's diploma, obtained abroad (or in the French Community) can be admitted to a preparatory or bridging programme after completing the admissions procedure.

2 Admission procedure

The admission procedure Master can be find integral online Programme register | AP School Of Arts \(ap-arts.be\)

2.1 Administrative fee

To take part in the admission procedure for the master programme, candidates must pay a non-refundable administrative fee of 25 euro, to be paid in advance online.

2.2 Registration and payment

Registration for and payment of the admission procedure for the master programme is possible online via the website Programme register | AP School Of Arts \(ap-arts.be\)

Candidates need to upload their portfolio, and a detailed curriculum vitae, a motivation letter, a proposal for the master project and a copy of all the degrees obtained after secondary school as indicated on the website.

2.3 Timing

The procedure for admission to the Master of Visual Arts is organized twice per academic year for the following academic year, with the exception of the procedure for the main subject Fashion.

A first session will take place in March (interviews in April/May), a second session will take place in August (interviews in September)

A candidate-student can only participate once per academic year in the admission procedure for one study programme or different study programs only at separate registration per study programme.

Candidate-students from outside the EEA are strongly advised to participate in this first round. Candidate-students from outside the EEA must submit their application for a student visa as soon as possible after admission, and at the latest in July. Only then will they have the visa in time to attend classes from the start of the academic year.

By December 31, the dates of the artistic admission procedure for the master's program will be announced online.

2.4 Assessment

Artistic entrance examinations are assessed by a committee.

2.5 Composition of the committee

Every committee is made up of at least two members of the teaching staff of the associated main subject/choice option linked to the Royal Academy of Fine Arts Antwerp and 1 external member. Members of the committee are prohibited from participating in the assessment of an artistic entrance examination of a spouse, a partner or a (blood) relative down to the fourth degree.

2.6 Publication of the committee's decision

Any decisions taken by the committee are made available to the concerned candidate-students in an e-mail sent to the address they provided within 7 calendar days counting from the day after the decision.

2.7 Enrolling as a student

Candidate-students who have passed the admission procedure for the master programme can only enrol if they meet all general admission requirements and language requirements as described in the currently applicable Education and Examination Regulations.

Candidate-students who have passed the full admission procedure will receive an email with all the details for the further processing of the registration.

With proof of passing the entrance test, the candidate-student may register only for the next academic year.
